Details and applications available at: www.rotarypeacecenternc.org

The Rotary Foundation is now accepting applications for the world-competitive Rotary Peace Fellowship.

The fellowship provides academic and practical training to prepare scholars for leadership roles in solving conflicts around the world.

DUKE-UNC Rotary Peace Center

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Up to 100 fellows are selected every year in a globally competitive process based on personal, academic, and professional achievements. As one of six Rotary Peace Centers worldwide, the Duke-UNC Rotary Center offers:

Two years of Rotary-funded graduate study toward a master's degree at Duke University or UNC-Chapel Hill

Training in the root causes of conflict, theories of international relations, and effective models of cooperation, conflict resolution, and negotiation including course work and applied field experience

A growing network of committed alumni employed around the world in diplomacy, government, non-governmental organizations and private corporations.
